Geronimo's Band.

On the heels of the denial of Secretary of War, Proctor that the Apaches under Geronimo are stationed at Fort Wingate New Mexico, comes the more startling information from Washington that they are to be enlisted in the army. The dispatch as sent out reads as follows:

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Geronimo's band of Apaches, still under Government surveillance at Vervon Barracks Ala., will be enlisted in the army. They will be formed into a company of infantry, and treated as other soldiers of the army. It is likely their enlistment will terminate the condition of captivity, as the War Department takes the ground that the service is in no sense a form of imprisonment and that the occupation of a soldier is an honorable one. It is hoped that this extension of a virtual privilege to the Indian prisoners, will complete the good effects already observable among them. It is reported that the association and influence of the white troops has "tamed" the Mount Vernon captives, and that they are in a condition to become recruits under the plan recently arranged by the Secretary of War for the red men of the plains.

A few days ago while sitting in Elder Bros' drug store at Tingley, Iowa, Mr. T. L. Dyer a well known citizen, came in and asked for something for a severe cold which he had. Mr. Elder took down a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said: "Here is something I can recommend. It commands a large sale and gives genuine satisfaction. It is an excellent preparation and cheap." Mr. Dyer purchased a bottle and the next day when we saw him he said he was much better, and the day following appeared to be entirely restored. This is a specimen of the effectiveness of this preparation.—[Des Moines Mail and Times.

H. Peto, druggist, sells the above mentioned remedy.

The sale of horses at Fort Huachuca yesterday was well attended and bidding was spirited. There were but 6 horses put up as advertised. Many persons attended with the idea that the advertisement read "6th cavalry horses" instead of "6 cavalry horses."

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a dozen different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good; but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it and felt sure that other similarly afflicted would be glad to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is for sale here at 50 cents per bottle by our druggist H. J. Peto.
